

222

The image shows two architectural drawings of a door frame. The left drawing is a full view of a rectangular frame with a top rail and two vertical stiles. A dimension line on the left indicates a height of 222 units. The right drawing is a detail view of the top corner, showing the top rail and a vertical stile with a curved transition between them.

FRE3053

1:100